Report of the National Seminar

One day National Seminar on “Nurturing Future Leaders” was organized by Department of Management Studies, SKIT on 12th December, 2022.

The inaugural ceremony of the seminar was begun with the august gathering in J. C. Bose Seminar Hall. The holy lamp was lit and Goddess Saraswati was beckoned to bless the occasion. The Conference started with a welcome note by Prof. S. L. Surana Director (Academics), SKIT. He welcomed all the delegates contributing in this Conference from different corners of the globe. Followed to this Dr. Ona Ladiwal, HOD, DMS present the brief of the conference and give the theme and objectives of the conference. Mr. Akshaya Goyal, Executive Director, BNI Foundation. He told that future leaders don't just happen, there are many elements that go into being a great leader and a lot of these skills need to be taught. Further he emphasized on Build strong foundations to be a effective and efficient leader.

In the first session of the National Seminar was on the theme Role of Leadership to Build Responsible Business Mr. Akshaya Goyal and Ms. Neelam Mittal was the session experts. Mr. Goyal enlightened the participants about the desirable skills required for a leader. He further focused on an emerging leader will be elemental in carrying out enormous reforms for the organisation's betterment. Successful leaders will have the calibre to handle areas where the higher-level management cannot reach out consistently. Followed to this Ms. Neelam Mittal, Regional Coordinator, BNI Foundation, Jaipur said that before stepping into a leadership role, corporate leaders should understand that not all leaders are born but are developed. Senior employees should step down from being boss and aspire to become self-driven leaders.

The Second session of the National Seminar was on Skill Development of Youth for Industry 4.0 and Beyond. In the session the first speaker Ms. Anshu Harsh, Regional Coordinator, BNI Foundation, Jaipur shared her view on the theme. She focused on emerging leader roles. Future she told that leaders will always act above his ego by keeping his long goal in mind while working with coworkers. Successful leaders don't hesitate to go out of the way to show the path to peers. The next expert of the session was Mr. Jaswindra Singh Uppal, Green Field E Resources, President, BNI Moonstone. Mr. Uppal emphasized that being in leadership roles lays much greater things of importance than institutional knowledge alone. Organizations hiring young talent with only high academic achievement and previous work experience will have a long way to go to get them ready to lead others in the same line of work.

The Third session of the National Seminar was on Ethical Leadership. Ms. Meenakshi Solanki, BNI Onyx, Foundation Coordinator and Ms. Vandana Garg, BNI Moonstone, Foundation Coordinator was the session experts. Ms. Solanki said that Ethical leadership must be a conscious decision. From a collective perspective, leaders can inspire those around them to behave ethically. Further Ms. Garg emphasized on the elements of ethical leadership i.e. honesty, Justice, respect, integrity, responsibility and transparency.

The Fourth session of the National Seminar was on Entrepreneurial Journey and life lessons of leadership. Ms. Kirti Jain, Secretary/Treasurer, BNI Onyx, CEO, Nutrition Hai Zaruri, Mr. Kush Vaishnav, Mentor Coordinator, BNI Moonstone, CEO, Kreative Kites and Ms. Saloni Sodhani, Vice President, BNI Moonstone, CEO, OM Caters had shared the hurdles they face in their entrepreneurial journey.

These speeches were followed by question, discussion and view points of the participants and speakers. The Seminar concluded with Valedictory session. Followed to this Dr. Atul Gupta, Dy. HOD & Coordinator-National Seminar proposed a vote of thanks to experts, participants, Organizing and Technical Committees for smooth conduct and huge success of National Seminar. The National Seminar has attained its objectives and was a great success.

Outcome report of the National Seminar

The Department of Management Studies successfully organized a National Seminar on “Nurturing Future Managers” on 12th December, 2022.

- The seminar was attended by more than 100 participants.
- The seminar constituted a good opportunity to foster the sharing of knowledge on various contemporary issues in the context of leadership.
- The seminar met its objectives in promoting the young students to think positively for the future journey and success.

Some of the lessons learned from the National Seminar are the following:

- An emerging leader will be elemental in carrying out enormous reforms for the organisation’s betterment.
- Successful leaders don’t hesitate to go out of the way to show the path to peers.
- Ethical leadership must be a conscious decision.
- The youth should be employment creator rather than job seeker. They should be creative and dynamic for future growth.
- Nation building and development of the society should be the first and foremost thing for the youth.
- Elements of ethical leadership are
 - ✓ Honesty
 - ✓ Integrity
 - ✓ Justice
 - ✓ Responsibility
 - ✓ Respect
 - ✓ Transparency
- The seminar focused on positive thinking and developing right attitude.

- Knowing oneself is the first trait an ethical leader has to possess. By knowing their own values and principles, they can make them visible to others, take positions, and solidly enter negotiations.
- Leadership may be a skill, but it is understood that many leaders share similar traits, and it's these traits that we can identify in ourselves.
- Points discussed on how to nurture leadership:
 - ✓ Create the consensus
 - ✓ Continuous learning
 - ✓ Be flexible and open-minded.
 - ✓ Be sensitive to external challenges.
 - ✓ Be fair, reasonable and predictable
 - ✓ Be ready to sacrifice
 - ✓ Perseverance is the key to leadership
