We are working in the light of Vision of NEP - 2020

This National Education Policy envisions an education system rooted in Indian ethos that contributes directly to transforming India, that is Bharat, sustainably into an equitable and vibrant knowledge society, by providing high-quality education to all, and thereby making India a global knowledge superpower.

The Policy envisages that the curriculum and pedagogy of our institutions must develop among the students a deep sense of respect towards the Fundamental Duties and on constitutional values, bonding with one's country, and a conscious awareness of one's roles and responsibilities in a changing world.

The vision of the Policy is to instill among the learners a deep-rooted pride in being Indian, not only in thought, but also in spirit, intellect, and deeds, as well as to develop knowledge, skills, values, and dispositions that support responsible commitment to human rights, sustainable development and living, and global well-being, thereby reflecting a truly global citizen.

UHV&EC

NEP 2020 & BHARTIYA KNOWLEDGE SYSTEM

The rich heritage of ancient and eternal Indian knowledge and thought has been a guiding light for this Policy.

The pursuit of knowledge (Gyan), wisdom (Pragyaa), and truth (Satya) was always considered in Indian thought and philosophy as the highest human goal. The aim of education in ancient India was not just the acquisition of knowledge as preparation for life in this world, or life beyond schooling, but for the complete realization and liberation of the self.

World-class institutions of ancient India such as Takshashila, Nalanda, Vikramshila, Vallabhi, set the highest standards of multidisciplinary teaching and research and hosted scholars and students from across backgrounds and countries.

The Indian education system produced great scholars such as Charaka, Susruta, Aryabhata, Varahamihira, Bhaskaracharya, Brahmagupta, Chanakya, Chakrapani Datta, Madhava, Panini, Patanjali, Nagarjuna, Gautama, Pingala, Sankardev, Maitreyi, Gargi and Thiruvalluvar, among numerous others, who made seminal contributions to world knowledge in diverse fields such as mathematics, astronomy, metallurgy, medical science and surgery, civil engineering, architecture, ship building and navigation, yoga, fine arts, chess, and more.

Indian culture and philosophy have had a strong influence on the world. These rich legacies to world heritage must not only be nurtured and preserved for posterity but also researched, enhanced, and put to new uses through our education system.

UNIVERSAL HUMAN VALUES

A humane society is composed of families living together in a relationship of mutual fulfilment. Such a society would make effort for a common, humane goal, which can be articulated as...

- Happiness in every individual (through right understanding and right thought)
- Prosperity in every family (through production of more than required physical facility by way of labour, using cyclic and mutually enriching natural processes)
- Fearlessness in society (through clarity and practice of justice in human- human relationship)
- Co-existence in nature/existence (through ensuring all processes are in harmony with the natural/existential laws)
- The key is the development of right understanding and right thought in every individual by way of humane education; and, of course, the practice of living accordingly. As a whole, this can be called humane education. This is both, the expectation from as well as the responsibility of the parents/elders, teachers and responsible people/systems of the society.

- A self-reflective methodology of teaching is adopted. It facilitates understanding through self-exploration. The dialogue starts between the faculty and the student.
- It opens the space for the student to explore his/her role (value) in all aspects of living – as an individual, as a member of a family, as a part of the society and as an unit in nature
- Through this process of self-exploration, students are able to discover the values intrinsic in them.

सभी सुखी होवें, सभी रोगमुक्त रहें, सभी का जीवन मंगलमय बनें और कोई भी
दुःख का भागी न बने।
हे भगवन् हमें ऐसा वर दो।

Rights of Indian Citizens

Indian Constitution provides six fundamental rights to their citizens, which are:

- Right to Equality (Article 14 – Article 18)
- Right to Religion (Articles 25 – Article 28)
- Right against Exploitation (Articles 23 – Article 24)
- Right to Culture and Education (Articles 29 – Article 30)
- Right to Freedom (Articles 19 – Article 22)
- Right to Constitutional Remedies (Article 32)

To completely enjoy the rights, citizens must perform their responsibilities towards the country in a decent manner because the rights and responsibilities of an individual are inter-related to each other. If we have rights, we must have their corresponding responsibilities too. Rights and duties of each citizen preserved in the Indian Constitution are very valuable and inter-related considering the prosperity of the country.

UHV&EC

Duties of Indian Citizens

In The Constitution of India book published and accepted by the first parliament of India on 26th of January 1950, under Article 51A, it's been duly pointed out that it shall be the duty of every citizen of India –

- To abide by the Constitution and respect its ideals and institutions, the National Flag and the National Anthem;
- To cherish and follow the noble ideals which inspired our national struggle for freedom;
- To uphold and protect the sovereignty, unity, and integrity of India;
- To defend the country and render national service when called upon to do so;
- To promote harmony and the spirit of common brotherhood amongst all the people of India transcending religious, linguistic and regional or sectional diversities; to renounce practices derogatory to the dignity of women;
- To value and preserve the rich heritage of our composite culture;
- To protect and improve the natural environment including forests, lakes, rivers, wildlife and to have compassion for living creatures;
- To develop the scientific temper, humanism and the spirit of inquiry and reform;
- To safeguard public property and to abjure violence;
- To strive towards excellence in all spheres of individual and collective activity, so that the nation constantly rises to higher levels of endeavor and achievement;
- Who is a parent or guardian, to provide opportunities for education to his child, or as the case may be, ward between the age of six to fourteen years.

The constitution book delineates every responsibility and duty that an Indian citizen is expected to abide by. As a citizen of the country, we are morally and legally required to perform our duties furnished by the government. They can be civic duties or moral duties which cannot be enforced legally upon the citizens even by the courts.

UHV&EC

PROFESSIONAL ETHICS

Professional ethics are principles that govern the behaviour of a person or group in a business environment. Like values, professional ethics provide rules on how a person should act towards other people and institutions in such an environment.

Ethical principles underpin all professional codes of conduct. Ethical principles may differ depending on the profession; for example, professional ethics that relate to medical practitioners will differ from those that relate to lawyers or real estate agents.

However, there are some universal ethical principles that apply across all professions, including:

- Honesty
- Trustworthiness
- Loyalty
- Respect for others
- Adherence to the law
- Doing good and avoiding harm to others
- Accountability

KEY OBJECTIVES OF “PROFESSIONAL ETHICS” EDUCATION

- Moral awareness (proficiency in recognizing moral problems in engineering like Plagiarism and patenting)
- Convincing moral reasoning (comprehending, assessing different views)
- Moral coherence (forming consistent viewpoints based on facts)
- Moral imagination (searching beyond obvious the alternative responses to issues and being receptive to creative solutions)
- Moral communication, to express and support one’s views to others

Teacher's day is celebrated on 5th September each year on the occasion of the birth of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan who was known as an amazing teacher of his time. Small function was organised by UHV & EC on this occasion for the beloved teachers. On an auspicious ceremony like teacher's day the students decided to do something very special for their professors on behalf of the college union. The very first Part of the Event was a Wonderful Speech on the Auspicious Day by Shreya Ameta & Ishika Bansal signifying the true importance of a teacher in a student's Life. Afterwards a melodious song was presented by Mrs. Aakriti Sharma, Associate Professor CS dept. which completely filled the environment with mesmerism. “Mahatma Gandhi” a man who never believed in fighting, but he always chose what was right. And “Shri Lal Bahadur Shastri” who was deeply influenced by the political teachings of Mahatma Gandhi. “Hard work is equal to prayers”, he once said ! Both of their lives hold several lessons in honesty, integrity and simplicity for children and adults alike ! To mark the 150th birth anniversary of “Mahatma Gandhi” and “Shri Lal Bahadur Shastri” with patriotic fervour, the students and professors gathered in CSE Block on 2nd october 2022. To imbibe the true meaning of the day and follow glorious trails of the noble soul towards evolving a peaceful and prosperous world, session/gathering was organised by Universal human values & Ethics Committee. The programme started with the chanting of patriotic songs. A quiz on the life of Mahatma Gandhi was also held. The Quiz consisted of about 40 questions highlighting the life achievements and the contribution towards nation and society of the two renowned personalities. Prof. Ramesh kumar Pachar, Principal elaborated that Shri Lal Bahadur Shastri Ji was simply personified—be it his style, the way he spoke, or even his behavior. ‘We need to understand that modernization is full of materialism. However, simplicity has its own advantages. We can achieve a lot even in a few resources’, he concluded.

The objective of the competition was to make the students confident and better orators so that they can fearlessly express their views on any topic. Extempore is an excellent way to assist the students not only in spontaneous thinking but also in asserting their creative ideas with precision.

The participants delivered their speeches with great confidence and left no stone unturned to give in their best on the topics they got. They were asked to present their views in the time slot of 2 minutes. The judges found it very taxing to select the best three students from all the 16 passionate participants. They were judged on the criteria of content, fluency, voice modulation and body language. The students showed great fervour and poise in their respective presentation. The competition concluded successfully with great words of encouragement and appreciation from the respected judges.

The judges for the competition were Prof. Archana Saxena, Dr. Nidhi Sharma and Dr. Amit Jhalani.

Inaugural Ceremony in which Raghav Charan Das Prabhu was invited as the chief guest on the first day. Prabhu is a devotee of Krishna in Akshaya Patra and he addressed the students present and said that change is very necessary and this change should not be an external change but a change from within. Change can take our life on the path of success then he talked about two types of knowledge. Para knowledge and Apra knowledge and ignorance i.e. knowledge of soul and own knowledge i.e. material knowledge and it is not that there is no need of material knowledge but there is a need to reconcile between the two. Today's life has become too much run and every person is looking for happiness in this run-of-the-mill life, so to get this happiness, we need a lot of self-knowledge or supreme knowledge. The first day of this workshop was concluded by chanting Hare Rama Hare Rama Rama Rama Hare Hare Hare Krishna Hare Krishna Krishna Krishna Hare Hare.

Day 2: Importance of Human Values:

By HG hari Bhakti Das, Motivational Speaker & Chief Chemical Engineer, Hindustan Zinc Ltd.

The session began with the day 2 keynote speaker, HG Hari Bhakti Das on the importance of Human Values. Prabhu Ji said that Human values are principles or beliefs that guide our behavior and decision-making, shaping our attitudes and actions towards others, ourselves, and the world around us. They are an essential aspect of what makes us human and play a significant role in our personal growth, relationships, and society as a whole.

Here are some reasons said by Prabhu Ji that why human values are important:

1. It Provide a moral compass: Human values help us distinguish right from wrong, good from bad, and just from unjust. They provide a moral compass that guides our decision-making, ensuring that our actions align with our beliefs and principles.
2. It Foster personal growth: Values such as integrity, honesty, and perseverance can help us grow and become better versions of ourselves. By living according to our values, we develop self-awareness, self-discipline, and self-respect.

It Strengthen relationships: Human values such as compassion, empathy, and respect for others are essential for building and maintaining healthy relationships. They promote trust, understanding, and acceptance, creating a sense of unity and belonging. It Contribute to societal well-being: Human values play a crucial role in promoting social harmony and cooperation. By upholding values such as equality, justice, and responsibility, we can create a more just and equitable society where everyone has the opportunity to thrive.

In summary, human values are essential for our personal growth, social well-being, and ethical conduct. They provide us with a sense of purpose, direction, and meaning, helping us lead fulfilling lives and make a positive impact on the world.

Day 3- Indian Knowledge System by Dr. Amit Jhalani

Day 3 of the workshop was given by Dr. Amit Jhalani on Indian Knowledge System. He included that Indian Knowledge System is one of the oldest and most diverse knowledge systems in the world, spanning over several millennia. It is a collection of diverse philosophical, scientific, and spiritual traditions that originated in India and evolved over time.

Here are some of the key features of the session on Indian Knowledge System:

- Spiritual and Philosophical Traditions: Indian Knowledge System is known for its spiritual and philosophical traditions, including Hinduism, Buddhism, Jainism, and Sikhism. These traditions emphasize the importance of self-realization, inner transformation, and the pursuit of ultimate truth and liberation.
- Ayurveda: Ayurveda is an ancient Indian system of medicine that emphasizes a holistic approach to health and wellness. It is based on the belief that the body, mind, and spirit are interconnected and that the key to good health is maintaining balance and harmony among these elements.

- Yoga and Meditation: Yoga and meditation are practices that originated in India and are now popular worldwide. These practices involve physical postures, breathing exercises, and meditation techniques that promote physical, mental, and emotional well-being.

- Art and Literature: Indian Knowledge System has a rich tradition of art and literature, including classical dance forms, music, and literature. The Indian epics, the Ramayana and the Mahabharata, are some of the most influential works in world literature.

In summary, of the session, the Indian Knowledge System is a rich and diverse collection of philosophical, spiritual, scientific, and artistic traditions that have evolved over time. It reflects the profound wisdom, creativity, and innovation of the Indian people and has made significant contributions to the world's knowledge and culture.

Day 5- Aspirations & Expectations by Dr. Nidhi Sharma

Day 5 of the workshop was given by Dr. Nidhi Sharma on Aspirations and Expectations. Aspirations and expectations are two concepts that are closely related but have different meanings.

Aspirations refer to the goals and dreams that we have for ourselves. They are the things that we desire to achieve, become, or have in our lives. Aspirations can be related to our personal or professional life, and they can vary greatly from person to person. For example, someone may aspire to become a successful entrepreneur, while another person may aspire to travel the world or to make a difference in their community.

Expectations, on the other hand, are the assumptions that we have about how things should be or how people should behave.

Expectations can be based on our past experiences, cultural norms, or personal values. For example, we may have expectations about how our friends should treat us, how our colleagues should behave at work, or how our romantic partners should communicate with us.

While aspirations and expectations can be helpful in guiding our decisions and actions, they can also lead to disappointment and frustration if they are not met. It is important to be mindful of our aspirations and expectations and to manage them in a healthy and realistic way. This may involve setting realistic goals for ourselves, communicating our expectations clearly to others, and being open to new experiences and perspectives. Ultimately, it is important to find a balance between our aspirations and expectations and to appreciate the journey and process of achieving them.

Day 6 - Trust, Respect, love and Gratitude by Dr. Shikha Agarwal

Day 6 of the workshop was given by Dr. Shikha Agarwal on the topic Trust, Respect, Love and gratitude. Trust, respect, love, and gratitude are four essential values that are fundamental to building healthy relationships, both in personal and professional settings. Here is a brief overview of each value:

- Trust: Trust is the foundation of any healthy relationship. It involves believing in someone's reliability, integrity, and honesty. When we trust someone, we feel safe and secure, and we are willing to be vulnerable with them. Trust is built over time through consistent behavior, open communication, and a willingness to listen and understand.
- Respect: Respect is the cornerstone of healthy communication and collaboration. It involves treating others with dignity, empathy, and consideration, regardless of their background or status. When we respect others, we are more likely to listen to their perspectives, value their opinions, and work collaboratively towards common goals.
- Love: Love is a powerful emotion that involves caring, compassion, and kindness towards others. It involves a deep connection and appreciation for someone's unique qualities and contributions.

Love can take many forms, including romantic love, friendship, and family bonds, and it is essential for building strong and meaningful relationships.

- Gratitude: Gratitude involves acknowledging and appreciating the good things in our lives, including the people around us. It involves expressing thanks and appreciation for the kindness, support, and contributions of others. Gratitude can help build stronger relationships by fostering a sense of connection, generosity, and positivity.

In summary, Ma'am concluded the session, trust, respect, love, and gratitude are essential values for building healthy relationships. By practicing these values in our interactions with others, we can create a more supportive, empathetic, and fulfilling community.

अज्ञानता से हमें तार दे माँ ।
हे शारदे माँ, हे शारदे माँ
अज्ञानता से हमें तार दे माँ ।
तू स्वर की देवी, ये संगीत तुझसे,
हर शब्द तेरा है, हर गीत तुझसे,
हम है अकेले, हम है अधूरे,
तेरी शरण मे, हमें प्यार दे माँ ।
हे शारदे माँ, हे शारदे माँ
अज्ञानता से हमें तार दे माँ ।
मुनियों ने समझी, गुणियों ने जानी,
वेदों की भाषा, पुराणों की बानी,
हम भी तो समझें, हम भी तो जानें,
विद्या का हमको, अधिकार दे माँ ।
हे शारदे माँ, हे शारदे माँ
अज्ञानता से हमें तार दे माँ ।
तु श्वेतवर्णी, कमल पे बिराजे,
हाथों में वीणा, मुकुट सर पे साजे,
मन से हमारे, मिटा दे अंधेरे,
हमको उजालों का, संसार दे माँ ।
हे शारदे माँ, हे शारदे माँ
अज्ञानता से हमें तार दे माँ ।
हे शारदे माँ, हे शारदे माँ
अज्ञानता से हमें तार दे माँ ।
