Action Taken (2023-24)

1. To fulfil the gap between Industry and academics, expert lectures from Industry and academia persons are planned for students at regular intervals.
2. Department should focus on practical knowledge. For more emphasis on hands on knowledge, design experiments should be included in the lab where applicable.
3. Department should focus that student will be more aware on emerging technologies in their respective field.
4. In view of recent hiring trends, more emphasis is given on competitive programming and coding challenges.
5. Atleast two mock interview/GD sessions are planned for each student to prepare them better for PI/GD rounds during campus placements.
