ABOUT SKIT

OUR GUIDING SPIRIT
SWAMI KESHVANAND JI
(1883 - 1972)
SOCIAL REFORMER & EDUCATION SAINT

Swami Keshvanand Institute of Technology, Management & Gramothan (SKIT) inspired from the learnings of Swami Keshvanand, was established in the year 2000 by Technocrats and Managers Society for Advanced Learning and Gramothan. Today the institute is recognized as one of the centers of academic excellence in Northern India. The Institute is affiliated to Rajasthan Technical University, Kota for offering Postgraduate and Graduate Courses in Engineering and Management. Our sister institution Swami Keshvanand Institute of Pharmacy (SKIP) is affiliated to Rajasthan University of Health Sciences for offering Graduate Course in Pharmacy.

Located in the Pink City Jaipur, which is a blend of traditional history and modern outlook, SKIT is putting in efforts for making industry ready engineers and managers through effective Industry –Institute Interface. Apart from University curriculum SKIT also pursues activities for research and development in various fields.

The green landscaping, aesthetic elegance of arches and the vibrant pursuit of knowledge by the young aspirants make the environment serene, pleasant and dynamic.

Students joining the institute share the box full of opportunities for professional and personal development through an environment of practical orientation, industrial interaction and student led activities which help the students to develop good communication skills, integrated personality and greater competitive spirit.

UNIVERSAL HUMAN VALUES AND ETHICS COMMITTEE

Universal Human Values and Ethics Committee of SKIT Jaipur is committed to create awareness about Universal Human Values, Ethics in personal and professional life, Code of conduct in organization and society and Rights Duties & Responsibilities of citizens among all the employees and students. Teaching itself is the noble profession and teachers have responsibility to nurture its students to make them knowledgeable, competent, sensible & responsible citizens. UHV&EC conducts workshops, FDPs, discussions and deliberations and expert talks for fostering these values among all the SKIT family members and to create a positive environment of education and research with technical advancements and brilliant managerial skills with the values and ethics in its backbone. All the commemorative days of national and international importance are also celebrated by the committee.

OBJECTIVES OF WORKSHOP

1. To enhance the awareness of UHV amongst students.
2. To inculcate morality amongst students.
3. To develop spiritual and emotional quotient among students.
4. To develop a spirit of unity and solidarity .

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

We all agree that education is at the core of developing the people, who are the society. If the education is right, the resulting society will be harmonious and fearless; otherwise it is just a crowd or even a battlefield where man's greatest fear is the inhuman conduct of man.

The present workshop on human values aims at leading the students to introspect and discover for themselves what they really want. The various sessions of the workshop will draw attention of the students to major issues and will also enable them to distinguish between the essential and the superficial; eventually developing their understanding regarding their family, workplace and then society. The motto of the workshop is to help the students understand their purposefulness or goal, both as an individual, as well as a Humane society, and to develop the commitment & competence to fulfill these goals.

Day 1: * Session on the Importance and Relevance of Universal Human Values and Ethics for Students*

The session conducted by Shree Jaswant Khatri provided valuable insights into the significance of universal human values and ethics, especially in the context of students' lives. Mr. Khatri emphasized the importance of not fearing mistakes. He likely conveyed that mistakes are an inevitable part of life and can be powerful learning opportunities. During the session, Mr. Khatri shared his personal experiences and position in a certain context, shedding light on the practical application of values in a professional setting. The speaker drew connections between the deeds of freedom fighters and the values they upheld. This linkage serves as a reminder of the transformative power of ethical actions. The session covered aspects of the student journey, including studying, survival, self-establishment, and the need for change within the system. Mr. Khatri likely stressed that human values play a crucial role in navigating these stages successfully. Mr. Khatri articulated why human values are essential, possibly highlighting their role in personal and societal development. The speaker outlined certain expectations from Personal and Professional Development, such as recognition, financial stability, and retirement plans. Mr. Khatri shared incidents like the Raymond's incident, the Lucknow IAS suicide case, and more. These anecdotes likely served as real-world examples to illustrate the importance of values in various situations. The need for aligning vision and action was discussed, underscoring the idea that success is more attainable when these two elements are harmonized.

Shree Jaswant Khatri's session left a lasting impact by providing students with practical insights into the role of universal human values and ethics in their personal and professional lives. The anecdotes and lessons shared are valuable tools for navigating the complexities of the world with integrity and purpose.

Day 2: Session on Emotional Wellness for Youth

Dr. Nidhi Sharma, the Convenor of the Universal Human Values and Ethics Cell, conducted an insightful session on the crucial topic of emotional wellness for the youth. The session aimed to address the challenges faced by young individuals in managing their emotions and fostering a healthy emotional well-being. Dr. Sharma emphasized the significance of understanding and acknowledging emotions. She discussed the spectrum of emotions and how each plays a vital role in human experiences. By encouraging participants to identify and express their emotions, the session aimed to lay the foundation for effective emotional management. The session delved into the concept of resilience and its role in navigating life's challenges. Dr. Nidhi Sharma provided practical strategies for developing resilience, including positive self-talk, goal-setting, and the importance of social support. These tools empower young individuals to bounce back from setbacks and maintain emotional well-being. Mindfulness emerged as a key theme in promoting emotional wellness. Participants learned about the benefits of mindfulness practices in reducing stress and enhancing overall mental health. Dr. Sharma guided the audience through simple mindfulness exercises, encouraging regular self-care routines as a means to prioritize emotional well-being.

Dr. Nidhi Sharma engaged the participants through interactive activities such as group discussions. These activities facilitated a dynamic exchange of ideas and experiences, making the session not only informative but also experiential.

In conclusion, Dr. Nidhi Sharma's session on emotional wellness for youth proved to be a valuable and enriching experience. By addressing the multifaceted aspects of emotional well-being, the session equipped participants with practical tools to navigate the complexities of their emotions and foster a resilient and positive mindset.

Session on Indian Knowledge System

Dr. Amit Jhalani commenced the session with a thought-provoking exploration of "Bharat ka matlab," setting the stage for an in-depth journey into the rich tapestry of the Indian knowledge system. Highlighting India's cultural significance, Dr. Jhalani emphasized that India boasts the most UNESCO heritage sites, underscoring the country's historical and architectural diversity. Moving on to literature, he shed light on the Vedas, the oldest literary texts in the world, showcasing the ancient wisdom embedded in Indian traditions. A noteworthy aspect of the session was Dr. Jhalani's discussion on the Indian economy, examining it from a millennial perspective. This intriguing perspective likely provided insights into the economic evolution of India over the centuries. Delving into historical glory, the session explored how India earned the epithet "Golden Sparrow." The mention of "Kitab ul Hind" and "Tarikh al Hind" hinted at literary contributions. Dr. Jhalani provided insights into the significance of these works and their impact on the understanding of Indian history and culture. William Sleeman's inclusion suggests a focus on the 19th-century British India and his contributions or influence during that period. The temporal journey continued as the session explored the Indian knowledge system before the 14th century. This likely included discussions on the intellectual achievements that positioned India as a global leader during that era. The intriguing connections drawn between Vivekananda, Tesla, and Einstein, especially in the context of "The Theory of Everything," suggests a bridging of diverse intellectual realms. It would be fascinating to learn how Dr. Jhalani wove these figures into a cohesive narrative. The mention of "divide and rule" hints at a discussion on the British colonial strategy. Dr. Jhalani may have explored the historical implications and consequences of this policy, providing insights into its impact on Indian society and politics.

In conclusion, Dr. Amit Jhalani's session appears to have been a comprehensive exploration of India's historical, cultural, and intellectual journey. The diverse array of topics covered, from ancient literature to modern economic perspectives, provides a holistic understanding of the Indian knowledge system. The session's success in connecting seemingly disparate elements, as well as shedding light on lesser-known aspects of India's past, likely left attendees with a deeper appreciation for the country's rich heritage.

Day 3: Session on Value Based Education

An enlightening session on value-based education was conducted by Shree Pawan Kumar, a renowned author and social worker. The event aimed to delve into the importance of instilling values in education and its transformative impact on individuals and society. Shree Pawan Kumar, a distinguished author and social worker, has dedicated his career to advocating for positive change through education. His work reflects a deep understanding of the role values play in shaping individuals and communities. Shree Pawan Kumar began the session by providing a comprehensive definition of value-based education. He emphasized the integration of ethical, moral, and social values into the educational curriculum to foster holistic development. The speaker highlighted the pivotal role of value-based education in character building. He shared real-life examples and anecdotes to illustrate how a values-centric approach in education contributes to the development of individuals with strong moral character. Shree Pawan Kumar underscored the significance of imparting a sense of social responsibility and good citizenship through education. He discussed strategies to incorporate these values into the educational system, aiming to create responsible and compassionate members of society. Shree Pawan Kumar's session on value-based education provided a thought-provoking and insightful exploration of the transformative power of instilling values in the education system. Attendees left with a renewed commitment to fostering an environment that nurtures not only academic excellence but also the development of strong, principled individuals.

Day 4: Session on Imbibing Values for Holistic Living

A session on "Imbibing Values for Holistic Living" was organized on 21st October, 2023. The distinguished resource person for the event was Dr. B.K. Sharma, a renowned expert in Universal Human Values (UHV) and the Dean of the Rajasthan Institute of Engineering and Technology (RIET) in Jaipur. The session aimed to enlighten participants about the significance of values in leading a holistic and meaningful life. The session commenced with a warm welcome and an inaugural address by Dr. Nidhi emphasizing the importance of values in today's fast-paced and ever-changing world. The audience was reminded of the role values play in shaping character and contributing to a balanced and fulfilling life. Dr. B.K. Sharma delivered an insightful presentation on the core principles of Universal Human Values and their application in daily life. He emphasized the need for individuals to align their actions with ethical values to foster personal growth and contribute positively to society. The session included interactive discussions, allowing participants to share their thoughts and experiences related to values. Dr. B.K. Sharma encouraged open dialogue, providing practical examples and scenarios to illustrate the application of values in various situations. The resource person shed light on the holistic aspect of living, emphasizing that a life centered around values leads to overall well-being—physically, mentally, and emotionally. He shared strategies to integrate values into decision-making processes, relationships, and professional endeavors. Dr. B.K. Sharma addressed the role of educational institutions in cultivating values among students. He highlighted the need for a comprehensive approach to education that goes beyond academics, incorporating moral and ethical teachings to prepare students for the challenges of the real world. In conclusion, the session on "Imbibing Values for Holistic Living" by Dr. B.K. Sharma was a resounding success, leaving participants with valuable insights and tools to navigate life with a strong foundation of universal human values. The event underscored the importance of integrating values into education and daily practices for the betterment of individuals and society at large.

Day 5: *ASSIGNMENT *

Day 6: Session on Ethics For Youths

The ethics session for youth, conducted by HG Raghav Charan Prabhu, a Life Skill Coach at the Hare Krishna Temple, proved to be an enlightening experience. The session spanned four days and covered a range of crucial topics, aiming to instill ethical values and life skills in the young participants. The event was initiated by Shlok, and the anchoring duties were skillfully handled by Aditi Sharma and Kayant Ansari. Before delving into the core topics, there was a comprehensive recap of the entire four-day workshop. Dr. Amit Jhalani presented the momentum to Prabhu Ji, summarizing the key takeaways and insights gained by the participants. HG Raghav Charan Prabhu addressed the overarching theme of the session – identifying and addressing problems, understanding their causes, and finding meaningful solutions. The session began with a powerful narrative about Las Vegas, highlighting the detrimental effects of gambling and addictions. The session emphasized the profound influence and impact that external factors can have on an individual's life choices. Through anecdotes and real-life examples, Prabhu Ji illustrated how one's environment and associations can shape their character and decisions. One of the most compelling aspects addressed was the prevalence of leading a 'fake life' in today's society. Prabhu Ji argued that true wealth lies beyond material possessions and that an authentic life is the key to fulfillment. The discussion shifted to the agenda of influence in the current scenario. Prabhu Ji likened the mind to a monkey and questioned why it is essential to control our minds. The answer lies in the profound impact our thoughts have on our actions and, ultimately, our destiny. Prabhu Ji shared impactful quotes, including one from a US man expressing his desire to remove Western influences from India if given the opportunity. This served as a thought-provoking commentary on the cultural influences and values that shape societies. In conclusion, HG Raghav Charan Prabhu's session on ethics for youth at the Hare Krishna Temple provided valuable insights into the problems faced by today's youth, their root causes, and practical solutions. The session aimed to equip young minds with the ethical tools needed to navigate the complexities of the modern world and lead purposeful lives.
