Expert Lecture Report Expert Lecture On “Agile Framework And Scrum”

The session on Agile Framework & Scrum, presented by Nikhil Srivastava at Swami Keshvanand Institute of Technology, offered an insightful introduction to Agile methodology and its application in project management. Nikhil contrasted Agile with the traditional Waterfall model, highlighting Agile's adaptability and iterative approach, which emphasizes flexibility and continuous improvement. He delved into the Scrum framework, explaining roles like the Product Owner, Scrum Master, and Development Team, along with Scrum ceremonies such as Sprint Planning and Daily Standups.

Nikhil also provided practical guidance on using tools and techniques for effective Agile implementation, emphasizing their role in enhancing team collaboration and project tracking. The session concluded with advice on pursuing a career in Agile, including certifications like CSM® and CSPO®, underscoring the value of Agile skills in today's rapidly changing business landscape.

Time and Venue: 21st September, 2024 (9:00AM-11:00 AM) Gyan Mandir Auditorium

Target Audience: 2nd and 3rd year UG students and faculty members of IT.

About Session:

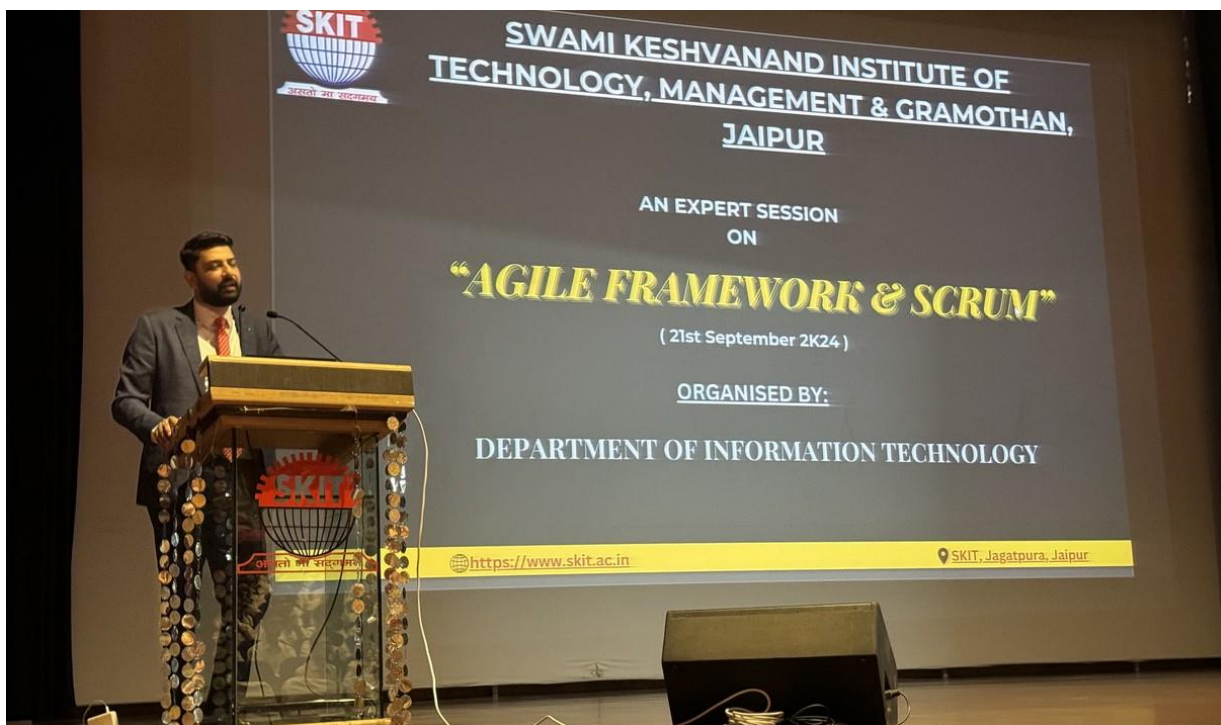

The session highlighted how Agile methodologies, particularly Scrum, can effectively address the limitations of traditional project management approaches. The Agile framework fosters a collaborative and flexible work environment, enabling teams to respond to changes and deliver value continuously. The session concluded with a reminder of the value of planning and action, quoting "Planning without action is futile; action without planning is fatal."

This comprehensive overview captures the essence of Agile and Scrum, offering a solid foundation for anyone looking to understand or implement these methodologies in their projects.
