Objective of the event: - To tell people about the odds that disabled people had to go through and they are not different people they are people like us only.

Details (Execution):-

A play called INAYAT was performed regarding the objective the play revolved around the concept that disability cannot stop one from moving further, it's not about always to loose, sometimes you need support in life of a teacher or anyone to move ahead, and as usual our teachers are always there, play told us that a lame person has nothing to do with speech he can stand in front of us and give best of his speech and how he is different as compared to all of us. This play was presented in front of NAAC dignitaries and the honourable board members of college and faculty members and also the students of SKIT.
